

Statement of Availability

The Maryland Employment Department requires all Employers to adhere to the following policies:

As required by law, when your temporary assignment with the agency ends you have the right to file for Unemployment Insurance Benefits.

You must contact A Watchful Eye Home Care Agency, regarding, or refusal of an assignment and this may result in loss of the Unemployment Insurance Benefit under the Maryland Unemployment Insurance Code.

A Watchful Eye Home Care Agency, will notify the Maryland Unemployment Insurance when an employee:

- ❖ Fails to contact for reassignment.
- ❖ Refuses an assignment.
- ❖ Fails to respond to the employer's mail or telephone calls regarding reassignment.

I agree to follow the terms of the Maryland Unemployment Insurance concerning my temporary employment with A Watchful Eye Home Care Agency. As soon as my assignment ends, I will notify A Watchful Eye Home Care Agency, the same day and once per week thereafter in an attempt to find another assignment. If I fail to do this, A Watchful Eye Home Care Agency, may assume that I am not available for assignment.
